

Bond Hill Community Council Meeting Agenda
January Meeting Minutes
January 5, 2023

Moment of Silence

Election Proceedings

- Questions for Ms. Dorothy for the role of Treasurer
- Speech from President Candidate - Margaux Roberts
- Questions for Margaux Roberts and provided a response
- Speech from Existing President - Jacque Edmerson
- Questions for Jacque Edmerson and provided a response

Voting and Counting Process

Updates

- Police

- Down 35% in crime overall and total of 12% down
- Different directed control in place every month
- Yarmouth, California, and Reading and officers patrolling the park
- Majority of crime has been theft but results are slightly skewed as there is no human touch because the computer doesn't differentiate between crimes
- Send an email of addresses of abandoned buildings to get them cleaned up
- Question - has there been any accidents attributed to the speed bumps

- Fire Department

- Fire at the quick mart
- Arson is handling it and the reports are been open to the public
- Residents are encouraged to call the firehouse for vacant buildings or buildings that need repair, call the fire department
- Lieutenant Lumpkin / Captain Caldwell / 513-325-2309

- Bond Hill Recreational Center

- January 16, FC Cincinnati putting mini pitch soccer
- BHCRRC renovations Feb 13 - Mar 4 for brand new floors put in except for the gym
- New addition to the team - Jayla
- BHCRRC was selected to be one of the sites to teach kids skills that lead to a careers / others centers offer photography, music, arts, etc.

- Paid training for lifeguards and teaching kids how to swim. Trying to get more memberships and activity at the pool.

- Great Parks Hamilton County / Conner Cunningham

- 1580 summit Road
- Monday 9, 16, 23 at Noon - story time in the forest
- Nature game night 10th at 7pm hot cocoa and nature theme board games
- Jan 14 at 11 am, wordplay poetry workshop transitions -free forum workshop with poetry, spoken word
- Winter bird feeder program Jan 15, at 1pm to make a bird feeder and take it home and feed birds
- MLK day litter clean up, QR code sign up for anyone who is interested Monday, Jan 16 noon – 2 pm meeting at the nature center. cleaning up the neighborhood. Refreshments are available and attendees can see animals at the nature center
- Jan 22 at 1pm - Nature detective to see tracks of animals

- 1N5 - Suicide Prevention / Tarin Cook Roselawn Resident

- 1n5 people are living with a mental illness
- prevent suicide by ending the stigma associated with mental health and illness
- QPR - mental health version of CPR
- Left flyer detailing what is 988 vs 911

- Bond Hill Business

- Review December Minutes – Motioned by Myles so moved 2nd by Andrea
- Treasurer's Report – Motioned by Marcia, Tami 2nd
- No old business

- Election Results

- President 26 people voted; 19 for Ms. Jacque, 7 for Margaux, 0 abstentions
- Treasurer 26 people voted; 25 for Ms. Dorothy, 1 abstention

- Presentation

- Proposal detailing updates to Bond Hill Park
- Questions on proposed improvements

- Committee Reports

- Beautification
- Membership
- Safety
- Youth – Thank you to those who attended the Jingle Jam; Volunteers have stepped up who will be working with the Youth

Meeting Adjourned