

Bond Hill Community Council Meeting Agenda
February Meeting Minutes
February 2, 2023

Attendees: 16 on Zoom

Notes

- Police Department - Crime is down and auto theft is up, Kia and Hyundai are the primary vehicles being targeted Sgt. Is community liaison. Thefts and burglaries. Neighborhood homicide between father and son
- Fire updates - if you need 513-352-2309 smoke detectors
Jason Davis, lieutenant, winter safety beware of space heaters and extension cords
- Bethany House - 163 individuals, 104 children, working with community partners to get children back in school, work with families to get back on their feet, and find a job if they don't already have one. Most families do. Welcome to come for a tour
- Great Parks - brought Lucy the box turtle, with a special ability Lucy is 65. Nature center programs - story time in the forest. Bring children for story time every Monday at noon, next Wednesday at 3 pm will spotlight Rico the rat snake; tie die with snow and ice on Saturday 25th at 2 pm; Sunday 26th, 11 – 1 pm at the civic garden center
- Tax abatement discussion - tax abatement is the primary way public education is funded. Cedric Denson Meeting on Feb 21, Board of Education on Burnet Avenue. With guest speakers to inform on how it impacts bond hill residents
- Councilman Mark Jeffreys six new speed bumps in Avondale and Roselawn, opportunities for homeowners to own extra money by renting out basement; question about speedbumps in bond hill
- Claire Rowe - please call 911 if you hear shootings so that the evidence can be picked up. Claire is a community coordinator and licensed social worker.
- Habitat for Humanity - shop or donate new or gently used goods. Bond Hill on April 29. Help find homeowners who may be interested and spread the word. There is a homeowner application. 15-20 homes. Yard clean up, etc. Anything reachable on a 6 ft ladder. $20 flat fee. The deadline to apply is march 31. Any applications after that date will be put on a waiting list. Fun day, free breakfast and coffee, le soupe provides lunches. If you have a specific parking spot - park there the night before, critical home repair programs
- Health care access now in Walnut Hills - resident of Bond Hill and member of council, pathway hub model, community health workers
- Cincinnati metro - Metro - Cameron Hardy chardy@go-metro.com
- Duke was not present
- Bond Hill meet and greet on the 17th
- Bond Hill Minutes review, Charles Holmes Patricia Moore Jessica 10 yes in the room 5 online yes
- Treasures report - Peg Divers and Andrey W. second
- Ms Sue is no longer membership chair
- Ms Dorothy motion Andrey W. second that meeting be adjourned

Action items

- Request from Vicki - Can I recommend in the future we ask questions be held until the end and the agenda is set up to accommodate, please? I don't know if that is considered a motion.